1st. The piece of software will be required to store all vehicle information.

2nd. There needs to be five classes to sort the information by vehicle type. The five classes are carRental, car, SUV, truck, motorcycle.

3rd. Vehicle information should be stored in class data members.

4th. There should be a menu that allows the user to print out the entire list or select cars based on capacity.